

I like my XM radio because it provides me much greater entertainment on a continuous basis. Program quality and content are much better than either AM or FM at this point. It is a service I subscribe to and want it continued without government interference from FCC or anyother govt. agency!